DIXONS

---

ESTABLISHED 1882

The Largs Pier Hotel has a long past with many people knowing the history and iconic status of the hotel. Built by the Largs Bay Land and Investment Company in 1882, the Largs Pier Hotel is rich in history, including the unusual honour of being the country's first drive through bottle shop in 1953. During the 70s and 80s the hotel began to establish its reputation as an important Aussie music icon, with Cold Chisel, AC/DC, The Little River Band and The Angels all playing here during the early days of their careers. Bon Scott, who later became the lead singer of AC/DC, even met his wife at the Largs after a gig in 1971! One of the periods that has had much attention and is referred to often are the days of Jimmy Barnes with Cold Chisel. Born James Dixon Swan (and better known as Jimmy Barnes) holds the Largs Pier Hotel as a special part of his history and naming the bar Dixons is a fitting tribute to him.
